

SPEAKERS

Michelle Sales, Coach & Author, Maximising Leadership Potential

Michelle Sales is passionate about helping people tap into their true potential – in leadership and in life. As a highly sought-after facilitator, coach, speaker and author, she has helped thousands of senior leaders and their teams to unleash human potential to maximise their leadership and performance.

Leadership is real work - to show up, stand up, speak up and step up takes real Confidence, genuine Connections, Clarity and true Commitment. As leaders, this is critical to success.

Michelle worked for 28 years in corporate roles – with many of those being senior and executive leadership roles in financial services – before establishing her own leadership business in 2012. From her experience, she understands the real challenges and opportunities that leaders in business face every day. So, the systems and processes she uses are based on real-life results and are tools she practises regularly herself.

Michelle is loved by her clients, colleagues and friends for her authenticity and warmth as much as for her hard-hitting ability to hold people to account. She is the author of the book 'The Power of Real Confidence' published by Major Street in 2018.

To find out more about Michelle, go to michellesales.com.au

Amanda Baker, Head of Government and Industry Relations, SAI Global

Amanda joined SAI Global in 2006 and has spent the past 10 years in roles of operational management, business development and program management. She is now the first Head of Industry Development in the SAI Global Property business.

A lending professional by trade, Amanda has lent her considerable experience in the mortgage origination, processing and property settlement arena to help grow the SAI Global Property business to the considerable size that it is today. Amanda's passion for the property transaction industry is driven by her understanding of the complexities and emotion associated with buying and selling a property in Australia. She understands the challenges of conveyancing and legal businesses who hold their clients hand through this process. Amanda understands how to increase client viability through smoothing out the complexities of dealing with banks.

Alex Tilley, CTU E-Crime Lead, Secureworks

With almost 20 years of experience in computer security and cybercrime, Alex Tilley is a highly awarded cybercrime researcher. Beginning his career in the extremely regulated online casino industry on Australia's Gold Coast, Alex went on to implement and administer many varieties of network security technologies within Australia's banking industry. Alex was on the forefront of research and countermeasures when phishing and malware first began to attack banking platforms and customers. When he later became the Australian Federal Police's senior cybercrime technical analyst, he combined his technical background with an analytical approach to discover "who" the cybercriminals were, why they were attacking specific targets, and what they were looking for.

SPEAKERS

Claire Madden, M.A. (Lead.), B.A. (Comms.)

As an author, social researcher, keynote speaker and media commentator, Claire is in high demand as an expert in interpreting social trends, demographics and implications of generational change. Claire is the author of Hello Gen Z: Engaging the Generation of Post-Millennials. Claire is highly regarded for her dynamic and engaging presentations where she translates robust, research-based content into strategic applications for educators, managers and business leaders. Claire is commissioned by some of the nation's largest companies and leading brands to interpret the changing landscape and communicate the implications for business and society.

Peter Maloney, Chief Executive Officer, GlobalX
Peter is a Director and Chief Executive Officer of award-winning conveyancing technology company GlobalX. Peter heads up a team of over 250 experts who are responsible for GlobalX's leading solutions, including $0 conveyancing workflow Matter Centre. Peter is passionate about assisting practitioners with the latest technology and integrated services to help drive conveyancers' productivity and overall business profitability. GlobalX offers the widest range of conveyancing technology tools, workflow software and integrated property information for Australian conveyancing and legal professionals.

Dr Len Turczynowicz

Dr Len Turczynowicz who has over 30 years' experience in human health risk assessment. Len has worked in government, academia and in multinational consulting companies. Len is active in research and teaching in the higher education sector. Len has a wealth of experience with degrees and training in public health toxicology, chemistry, occupational hygiene, public health and exposure science. Len has developed national criteria for soil and air contaminants and contributed to national regulatory frameworks for chemical contaminants that impact public health. Len is one of the rostered experts who fulfil the role of the Technical Advice Coordinator that provides 24/7 advisory technical services to emergency first responders on matters associated with hazardous substances.

Margaret Barron, Manager Policy & Training, AICSA
Margaret brings a wealth of knowledge and experience to the AICSA with qualifications in law and education including a Master of Laws from Australian National University. Marg has practised as a solicitor, lectured in law subjects in the vocational education and university sector for many years and was the Principal Lecturer of Justice, Policing and Property Services at TAFE for 15 years. She is very experienced in designing, delivering, assessing and evaluating training programs. She is also an author, having written the textbook, Fundamentals of Business Law and is currently writing a book on residential tenancies law in Australia.

Jim Morris

Social Media Strategist with over 15 years of marketing, sales & advertising experience and a leading educator in Social Media Marketing.

